

Please don't feed waterfowl in the Avon Estuary

Regular artificial feeding can cause:

- Reduced foraging & changes to feeding routines
- Poor balance of nutrition
- Concentration of birds in one area
- Attraction of birds away from other rivers
- Unnatural & aggressive swan behaviour leading to hazards for users of road & river

If you care about waterfowl, please stop feeding them and allow them to return to their natural habits.

Keep wildlife wild!

Bigbury Parish Council & Aune Conservation Association